

Glossary

A slight change made to something to make it fit, work better, or be more suitable, or the act of making such a change

Adjustments

The Globally Harmonized System (GHS) is a global standard for classifying and communicating chemical hazards

GHS

The substances that ignite instantly upon exposure to oxygen

pyrophoric

The gradual deterioration of metals caused by the action of air, moisture, or a chemical reaction (such as an acid) on their surface

corrosion